ABOUT US.

In the past, Bhutan was known as the country of medicinal herbs (Menjong in local language). Now, we are the premier manufacturer and official supplier of traditional medicines to the Ministry of Health in Bhutan. We take pride in producing 124 types of high quality traditional medicines. We also manufacture and market several herbal products and health promoting supplements for the country and export some of the supplements.

Formulation of all these products/supplements are based on Sowa Rigpa, the ancient Buddhist science on medicine and healing which still flourishes in Bhutan even today.
